

PRESS RELEASE – February 5, 2016

Incredible Film has been working over the last couple of years on becoming the worldwide sales agent for Dutch production companies. Together with a full catalogue of family adventures, teen movies, drama, thrillers and comedies Incredible Film now comes to Berlin with:

SCREAM WEEK, an upbeat, tongue-in-cheek Dutch horror/ slasher, skillfully and cleverly done. With 28 Spinnin' Records hit songs, including ANOTHER YOU, by Armin van Buuren ft Mr. Probz & POLICEMEN by Eva Simons ft Konshens.

Market Screenings: 14.02 19.05, 15.2 19.30, both CinemaxX2

FASHION CHICKS, the young Devil Wears Prada, a teen movie in the line with Mean Girls and She's the Man.

LITTLE GANGSTER, a clever Dutch family adventure, featuring an amusing script, whimsical art direction, and a cast of delightful characters, Little Gangster is a gratifying story about accepting yourself for who you are and having the courage to live authentically. Was selected for Sundance '16.

NENA, a coming-of-age tale that is also about the impending loss of a parent, the engaging, unpretentious "Nena" gets a breakout performance from Abbey Hoes in the title role. It's nearing the end of its festival run, but further international prospects are likely for this small-gauge but skillfully wrought drama.
